ABOUT RGNUL

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab through the enactment of the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act established a law university of national stature in Punjab, fulfilling the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the era of globalisation and liberalisation. The University received the approval of the Bar Council of India (BCI) in July 2006.

In May 2015, RGNUL became the first and only National Law University (NLU) to receive accreditation from the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with an 'A' grade. In 2018, RGNUL was among the four NLUs granted autonomous status by the University Grants Commission (UGC).

The University has consistently been recognised among India's leading law schools and has featured among the top 10 law schools in India under the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) of the Ministry of Education, Government of India.

RGNUL places strong emphasis on research, training, and consultancy across diverse and contemporary areas of legal scholarship. The University continues to advance its vision of becoming a research-intensive institution, fostering academic excellence, interdisciplinary inquiry, and meaningful contributions to the legal profession and society.
