About the Organizers

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The University has been accredited with 'A' grade by NAAC. The University is dedicated to provide holistic legal education and to promote quality research in law and allied disciplines.

The University has also set up research centres to promote research and related activities. In consonance with the objectives of Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, the Centre for Advanced Studies in Labour Welfare (CASLW) and Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR) has been established.

The Centre for Advanced Studies in Labour Welfare (CASLW) has been established with a view to improve and strengthen the Labour Justice System in India.

The Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR) undertakes activities to promote advanced study and research in the emerging trends in Human Rights.

Think India

Think India is a pan India organization established with the aim to bring together the best talent of the country and to infuse in them a "Nation-First" attitude. Think India as an organisation works for various causes such as upliftment of rural India, gender justice, initiating and encouraging India-centric thoughts and activities. For the fulfilment of the same purpose we engage in organisation of several activities such as article writing competition, debates, conferences etc.
