ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law Punjab Act, (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, thereby fulfilling the need for a Center of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization.

INDIAN COUNCIL FOR SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH (ICSSR) North-Western Regional Centre, P.U. Chandigarh

The North-Western Regional Centre of the ICSSR was set up on the campus of Punjab University, Chandigarh in October 1977. The centre is housed in an aesthetically and functionally designed commodious building. It has a Guest House, Seminar hall and conference rooms.

The Centre is deeply and vigorously involved in the promotion of research in diverse social science disciplines as well as in interdisciplinary research. It conducts seminars, symposia, training workshops and public lectures in its premises and in other institutions. Apart from it the centre encourages University departments and colleges in the region to engage in similar activities by providing financial support. It provides financial assistance to research scholars pursuing Ph.D. to consult libraries under its study grant scheme. Presently Professor Sanjay Kaushik is the Honorary Director of ICSSR, NWRC and Dr. P.K. Saini Deputy Director, ICSSR, NWRC, Chandigarh.
