ABOUT RGNUL

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, is established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006 and accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC. The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, thereby fulfilling the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. The University endeavors to serve the society through reforms in legal services by way of preparing professionally competent lawyers, inquisitive researchers, able administrators, conscientious judicial officers, and above all, socially responsible citizens, who shall be whole- heartedly and continuously engaged in the process of nation building.

ABOUT NHRC

National Human Rights Commission has been constituted in accordance with the provisions of Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993. As per Section 12 (h) of the Act, the Commission is mandated to “spread human rights literacy among various sections of society and promote awareness of the safeguards available for the protection of these rights through publications, the media, trainings and other available means.” The Commission has been performing its functions to spread human rights literacy and sensitize people belonging to various sections of society on all aspects relating to human rights.

ABOUT THE TRAINING PROGRAM

It is often said that the inherent strength of a society, a culture and a system is judged by the way its women are treated and the role assigned to them by the society. Gender equality is an important issue of human rights and social justice not only in India but also in the world as a whole. The indispensability of women as reproducers of human societies has become an instrument of their enslavement. The Theme of the One-Day National Training Program is PROTECTION OF RIGHTS OF WOMEN - ISSUE AND CHALLENGES. The National training program on PROTECTION OF RIGHTS OF WOMEN - ISSUES & CHALLENGES is being organised by Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab in collaboration with National Human Rights Commission.

The basic objective of the training program is to promote, encourage and initiate research related to the different issues related to the violation of Women Rights, including analyzing the various laws along with factual reality related with Human Rights Protection and to provides an introduction to women's human rights.
