INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

ON

“VICTIM COMPENSATION AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

AND

NATIONAL BILL DRAFTING COMPETITION ON VICTIM COMPENSATION, 2015”

On

23rd November, 2015

Organized by

Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights
(CASIHR), RGNUL Punjab

In collaboration with

Institute of Correctional Administration, Chandigarh

ABOUT THE ORGANIZERS

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006(Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, thereby fulfilling the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of liberalization and globalization.

Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR)

The Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR) is a centre for excellence established at RGNUL, Punjab to undertake and promote advanced study and research in emerging trends in human rights. CASIHR aims at conducting multi-disciplinary research in various human rights issues and creating working documents serving as advices to policy makers, regularly organizing conferences, seminars and debates on the relevant topics.

Institute of Correctional Administration, Chandigarh

The Institute of Correctional Administration, Chandigarh is a premier training and research Institute catering to the training needs of the police & prison officers of the region. It was set-up by the Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs in 1989 and is fully supported by the MHA. It strives for a safer, just and humane society through empowering correctional professionals and building up partnerships for an effective criminal justice system. Prison officers from all over the country come here to attend various training programmes. ICA sensitizes officers on latest developments in law, human rights issues, gender sensitization with particular focus on attitudinal change and behaviour skills. In addition, ICA also undertakes research studies in the areas of Criminal Justice System and is also associated with giving policy-making inputs.

In addition to it, this Institute is also organizing a number of workshops / conferences and seminars at the regional as well as national levels on current and relevant issues of correctional administration and criminal justice to the functionaries of criminal justice system. It provides vital professional inputs to the Government of India as well as State Governments for formulation of policies in this field. The Institute of Correctional Administration provides for professional competency development through a process of continuous training, feedback, research and development.

CONCEPT NOTE:

Social Justice being the foundation of the Indian society as well as the Constitution. This seminar aims to first and foremost sensitizing people belonging to various sections of society on aspects relating to victim compensation. Furthermore, it is an effort to reflect and examine all issues relating to provisions for victim compensation and restorative Justice and finally to come up with solutions to these issues. It is an attempt to address and study issues such as the liability of the state, the problems faced by the victims and whether or not victim compensation be provided? Since awareness of laws and access of justice remains dismal. This seminar aims to raise awareness in this regard.

NATIONAL BILL DRAFTING COMPETITION:

A National Bill Drafting Competition shall be organized wherein participants will be required to Draft a Bill on Victim Compensation. The Best three bills will be presented before the Panel and the winners shall be given cash prizes.
