LL.M. Orientation Program at RGNUL 3rd August 2022

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab organised LL.M. (OYC) orientation program. Prof. G.S. Bajpai, Vice-Chancellor congratulated the new cohort on joining the university. He spoke about the pedagogical shift and remarkable departure in curriculum of one year PG course at RGNUL. “LL.M. is research-intensive program that provides impetus to explore new studies and enhances critical analytical skills of students,” said Prof. G.S. Bajpai. He exhorted students to adopt alternative modes of enquiry, develop researching & writing skill and actively participate in the learning process. Prof. G.S. Bajpai said, “Students must read voraciously for new intellectual formations, standard conceptualizations and ready application of knowledge.”

Students were introduced to the scheme of study and examination pattern of the university. Prof. Anand Pawar, Registrar, Prof. Naresh Kumar Vats, Dean Academics, Dr. Sidharth Dahiya, Deputy Registrar and faculty members were present during the program.
