CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES IN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW (CASH)

International Humanitarian Law (IHL) is a set of rules which seeks to limit the effects of armed conflict for humanitarian reasons. It protects the persons who are not, or are no longer, participating in the hostilities and restricts the means and methods of warfare. International Humanitarian Law is also known as the 'Law of War' or the 'Law of Armed Conflict'. The Geneva Conventions of 1949 and their Additional Protocols of 1977 require the State Parties to disseminate the content of these humanitarian treaties as widely as possible in their respective countries. Of course, their inclusion in the military instructions is indispensable to ensure their implementation in the times of armed conflict. However, it is equally important to promote the knowledge of Humanitarian Law among those whom it is intended to protect - the civilian population as well as among those who have to apply it. At the same time, political leaders, policy planners and the decision-makers must also be familiar with the law so that they are aware of its relevance, realism and mode of operation, if and when a conflict breaks out. Our Specialized Centre of IHL aims at (i) Recommending ratification of the instruments of International Humanitarian Law; (ii) Disseminating information and awareness about the subject of IHL; (iii) Preparing a data base and carrying out advanced research in the field of International Humanitarian Law; (iv) Organizing conferences, seminars, workshops and sensitization programmes etc. etc; and (v) Providing training courses and encouraging and facilitating the future researchers by providing literature relevant material and case laws. As a matter of fact the aim of the CASH Centre at the RGNUL, Patiala is to ensure that the future leaders and opinion makers understand practical relevance of the subject of IHL and have a thorough knowledge of its basic principles. The first and foremost function of the centre is to sensitize teachers, researchers and students of our University at Patiala, about the provisions of the IHL so that they may choose IHL as a field in their future research endeavors.

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES IN HUMAN RIGHTS (CASIHR)

CASIHR publishes a monthly newsletter titled "The Human Rights Communique." The newsletter covers a wide range of issue on human rights and keeps the readers updated with the latest news on human rights, both national and international. Nine issues of the newsletter have been published covering various issues related to Human Rights. The centre organizes National / International events like Seminars / Conferences / Workshops related to human rights where nationally as well internationally renowned Human Rights experts are invited to share their knowledge with the fraternity of academicians, researchers and students.

SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURAL LAW AND ECONOMICS (SALE)

Introduction to SALE is, "balancing development and sustainability" - The past decades featured within hesitant scales of globalization resulted into excessive emphasis upon economic development. The emphasis on economic development had to be justified with industrial expansion and growth; which further deprived agriculture of an optimum concern and impetus. All these features resulted into Agricultural Deterioration; further creating a need to balance development with sustainability goals. Research in agriculture and development of agricultural law are a probable consequence of these factors. Agriculture, when ignored in policy making and law formation, posed numerous challenges for the administration; as the Indian society and its livelihood depends upon the agrarian pattern to a large extent. School of Agricultural Law and Economics (SALE) is a Centre of excellence established with an object to provide a platform for multidimensional analysis of the agricultural sector in connotation to legal, social, political and cultural paradigms. In other terms, it is centre forwarding inter-disciplinary approach to the study of economics and law. It undertakes research projects, curriculum coverage on important themes like standardization of agricultural products; farming patterns; Issues related to agricultural insurance especially the crops and the workers, problems related to marketing of agricultural produce; credit needs; farm management and tenancy issues; environmental concerns; policy framework and agricultural planning issues related to international trade in agriculture especially under the regime of the WTO. The School of Agricultural Law would encompass the study of the law which focuses on the special rules and exceptions made for agriculture. It basically aims at focusing how agricultural laws can be used to serve the diverse and competent interests of the agrarian society. An understanding of agricultural laws would require an understanding of the agricultural financial institutions and the people associated therein such as the farmers, food processors, the landlords, the tillers, the suppliers of agricultural inputs and equipments, agricultural workers, etc.; which SALE will focus on.

Convocation 2015

THE SECOND CONVOCATION
31ST JANUARY, 2015
RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake
