The University was accredited with 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in 2015. RGNUL, Punjab was granted autonomy under UGC Regulations, Clause 5 Dimensions of Autonomy for Category-II Universities in April 2018. The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, ranked RGNUL the first amongst the cleanest Higher Educational Institutions, Swachh Campus (2019) in the category of Government Residential Universities.

ABOUT FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME

This Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on Integrating Indian Knowledge System and Law aims to familiarize academicians with the relevance and application of the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) in contemporary legal education, research, and teaching pedagogy. The programme seeks to promote a multidisciplinary and value-based approach towards legal studies by integrating traditional Indian jurisprudence, ethics, governance models, indigenous dispute resolution systems, and constitutional values with modern legal frameworks. It also intends to encourage faculty members to explore culturally rooted and interdisciplinary perspectives in curriculum development, research, and classroom teaching in alignment with the objectives of NEP 2020.

LEARNING OUTCOMES OF THE FACULTY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

The Faculty Development Programme (FDP) will equip participants with the knowledge and skills required to integrate Indian Knowledge System perspectives into legal research, teaching, and academic practices. Faculty members will gain insights into identifying interdisciplinary research areas, developing research proposals, conducting critical analysis of classical Indian texts, and exploring their contemporary relevance in law and society. The programme will also introduce innovative teaching methodologies, experiential learning techniques, and value-oriented pedagogical approaches to enhance student engagement and learning outcomes while fostering collaboration among academicians and researchers from diverse disciplines.
