

REPORT
Online Webinar
On
Scholarships to study abroad
16th February 2023

The Center for Advanced Study in International Humanitarian Law, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law has organized an online webinar session by Mr. Sachin Kala on Scholarships to Study Abroad. Mr. Sachin Kala, the guest speaker, is an RGNUL alumnus who is now doing his Master's degree in Law at Queen Mary University of London. He wished to guide and provide an insight to students who are interested in studying abroad. The webinar was attended by over 20 students from the university. The session started by an introduction of how a masters degree from a foreign university can add to the experience and how important are scholarships for this purpose.

Mr. Kala addressed different types of scholarships available to students by the state and central governments. These included Rajiv Gandhi Scholarship for academic excellence by the Rajasthan government, National Overseas Scholarship by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, Madhya Pradesh Foreign Study scholarships by the Madhya Pradesh government and more. Eligibility criteria, benefits of the scholarships as well as number of seats were elaborated upon by him. He went on to brief the participants about the application procedure for the aforementioned.

He stated that, as students we should always focus on studying more and should aim for the best with a proper plan in mind to be able to achieve success. He ended his presentation by quoting B.R Ambedkar and thereafter opened floor for questions. There were various questions regarding advantages of pursuing and LLM degree from a foreign university, ways of earning while studying abroad, the kinds of internships that we as law students should focus on. The session concluded on a positive note from his side where he wished luck to the participants and assured help whenever required.