The Centre for Advanced Study in International Humanitarian Law (CASH) at Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law is pleased to announce an enlightening lecture series featuring our distinguished alumni who have specialized in international law. This event aims to shed light on the prospects and benefits of pursuing a specialization in international law.

Our alumni will share valuable insights into their careers and offer guidance on navigating this dynamic field and will be available to address any queries you may have. We encourage all students to attend and explore the opportunities that an international law specialization can offer.
