The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, ranked RGNUL the first amongst the cleanest Higher Educational Institutions, Swachh Campus (2019) in the category of Government Residential Universities.

About The Capacity Building Programme

The theme of theCapacity Building Programme shall pertain to Cyber Laws, Cyber Security and Forensic Justice. In the age of advancing technologies and inter-connected world where everything is in cyber sphere, laws and security concerns pertaining to cyber world gain prominence. The laws governing the cyber sphere have many lacunas and need to be properly structured. The requirement of invocation of the Penal Laws, Contract Laws and other legislations signify that the cyber laws have to be developed from scratch in a Country as large and diverse as India. There have been numerous crimes being committed and majority of them go unreported. The users are exposed to numerous threats while surfing the internet, online financial frauds, crimes through social media and women related crimes on Internet have become very common.

The understanding of forensic science and its application is significant for strengthening the criminal justice system. Forensic scientists are important stakeholders in our criminal justice administration which not only collect the evidences from the crime scene but also analyze them in order to assist the court in the justice delivery system. The aim of this Capacity Building Programme is to understand the nuances of forensic science and to impart this knowledge to the legal fraternity on a journey of holistic understanding of forensic science and law together to impactful deliver ensure that forensic justice is delivered.
