ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, to fulfil the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. The University acquired approval of the Bar Council of India (BCI) in July 2006. The University also got registered with the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi under Section 2(f) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 and has been declared fit to obtain grant from the (UGC) under Section 12-B of the UGC Act, 1956. The University was accredited with 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in 2015. RGNUL, Punjab was granted autonomy under UGC Regulations, Clause 5 Dimensions of Autonomy for Category-II Universities in April 2018. The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India, ranked RGNUL the first amongst the cleanest Higher Educational Institutions, Swachh Campus (2019) in the category of Government Residential Universities.

ASSOCIATION OF INDIAN LAW LIBRARIES

Idea of Association of Indian Law Libraries (AILL) was coined during first International conference on Access to Legal Information and Research in Digital Era (ICALIRDA) organised at National Law University Delhi in 2012, where law librarians of Law Schools, Courts, Law Firms and governmental bodies from India, met and expressed their willingness on the need to establish a law librarians' association in India. Mr. Jereon Vervilet, Director, Peace Palace Library, The Hague, Netherlands and President, International Association of Law Libraries (IALL), Prof. Tami Gierloff, Professor & Assistant Dean, Lewis & Clark Law School, Portland and Mr. Jonathan Franklin, Director Library, University of Washington witnessed their presence during the meetings and events.

Mr. Jereon Vervilet, Director, Peace Palace Library, The Hague, Netherlands and the President, International Association of Law Libraries (IALL) played a major role in conceiving the idea of Association of Indian Law Libraries with even numbers of suggestions and recommendations. A number of communications and draft memorandum(s) were exchanged between law librarians for setting Association of India Law Libraries during a long period. Law Librarians of Association of Indian Law Libraries (AILL) was finally set up and announced in 2018 during the First International Conference on Digital Transformation: Preservation, Policy and Privacy (ICDT) at National Law University Delhi. Most of the law librarians from state law schools, law firms, courts and governmental institutions are members of this association.

The Association has been setup with the objectives of development law and library sciences in India; trainings for library professionals to serve better in law institutions and organisations; visualising development of laws and new techniques in library sciences to enhance information services; and publication of latest developments in law libraries around the world for awareness among law and library professionals from AILL platform. The Association is committed to assist its members for serving in best manners to their clientele with the help of advanced technology introduced.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The "Online Conference on Libraries, Education and AI: Bridging the Gap between Knowledge and Technology" is a ground breaking event aimed at exploring the synergy between artificial intelligence, library science, and education. This conference gathers experts, educators, librarians, technologists, and students to discuss the transformative impact of AI on traditional learning and knowledge management systems. Key themes include the integration of AI in library services, the role of AI in personalized education, and the ethical implications of AI in academic settings.

OBJECTIVES OF THE CONFERENCE

A significant focus will be on the intersection of AI and intellectual property rights (IPR), including copyright issues in the digital age. Sessions will delve into how AI technologies can help manage and enforce IPR within libraries, ensuring that digital resources are used legally and ethically. Discussions will cover the challenges and opportunities that arise when using technology to access, store, and share copyrighted materials, highlighting best practices for compliance and innovation.

The conference seeks to foster collaboration and inspire new approaches to leveraging technology for the betterment of education and knowledge dissemination, emphasizing the crucial role of intellectual property rights in this evolving landscape.
