ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Patiala, established in 2006, stands as one of India's premier institutions for legal education and research. Recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and accredited with an 'A' grade by NAAC, RGNUL is dedicated to fostering a culture of academic excellence and innovation. Nestled in a sprawling 50-acre campus in Sidhuwal, Patiala, the university offers state-of-the-art infrastructure, including a well-equipped library, advanced research facilities, and modern classrooms that create a conducive environment for holistic learning.

RGNUL's mission is to produce legal professionals who not only excel in their fields but also contribute meaningfully to society. The university combines rigorous academic programs with practical exposure and co-curricular activities, ensuring the holistic development of its students.

At the forefront of specialized legal research, RGNUL houses several centers of excellence, including the Centre for Innovation and Intellectual Property Rights (CIIPR). The CIIPR serves as a hub for advanced research, awareness, and capacity-building in the dynamic field of Intellectual Property Law. It is committed to bridging the gap between academia and practice by organizing national and international seminars, conferences, workshops, and moot court competitions focused on emerging trends and challenges in IP law.

The Centre collaborates with legal professionals, industry leaders, and academic institutions to promote innovation and address contemporary issues in intellectual property. Through its initiatives, CIIPR equips students with critical analytical skills and practical knowledge, empowering them to navigate and contribute effectively to the evolving landscape of IP law. By integrating academic rigor with professional engagement, RGNUL and CIIPR strives to inspire a generation of legal minds to lead the discourse in Intellectual Property and Innovation.
