RGNUL ORGANIZES ONE DAY SEMINAR ON SENIOR CITIZENS AND ELDERLY PEOPLE ON 18th March, 2024

In a concerted effort to address the multifaceted issues surrounding senior citizens and elderly individuals, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Patiala (RGNUL), in collaboration with the Indian Council of Social Science Research, North Western Regional Centre, Chandigarh, organized a one-day seminar on 18th March, 2024 on the topic Senior Citizens and Elderly People: Legal, Social and Ethical Perspectives. Dr. Brindpreet Kaur, master of the Ceremony stressed that under the visionary guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Anand Pawar, the esteemed Vice Chancellor of RGNUL and the adept coordination of the Convenor, Dr. Manoj Kumar Sharma, Associate Professor of Law at RGNUL, the seminar provided a platform for robust discussions and insights into the challenges faced by the elderly. Dr. Manoj Kumar Sharma introduced the theme of the Seminar. He highlighted the increasing population of elderly people in India which is expected to 319 million by 2050 and the issues associated with increasing percentage of older people in the population. Dr. Manoj Sharma stressed the need for strong policy framework and its effective implementation to adequately address the social, emotional and economic issues of senior citizens and elderly people. Prof. (Dr.) Nishtha Jaswal, the esteemed Vice Chancellor of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Law University, Jaipur, was the chief guest on the occasion and she inaugurated the seminar. Her remarks on social justice for the elderly people of the country deeply resonated with the audience. Her words encapsulated the urgency of prioritizing the well-being and rights of the senior citizen not only within the legal system but also within the broader societal framework. She, very pertinently, discussed about the legal provisions under The Hindu Adoptions and Maintenance Act, 1956, obligating a person to maintain his/her aged or infirm parents. Prof. (Dr.) Sharanjit, Prof. (Dr.) Kamaljit Kaur, Dr. Gurmanpreet Kaur, Dr. Jasleen Kewlani, Dr. Sangeeta Taak, Mr. Anubhav, Dr. Gurneet Singh and Dr. Basant Singh also graced the occasion. As the seminar concluded, attendees expressed a collective commitment to advancing policies and initiatives that uphold the dignity, rights and social inclusion of senior citizens and elderly individuals. With aging population on the rise globally, forums such as these serve as vital platforms for advocacy and policy development, aimed at ensuring a dignified and fulfilling life for older adults. The seminar had a diverse range of participants from students, academicians from various disciplines, doctors, practitioners etc. fostering an interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration. Topics ranged from legal aid accessibility to preserving dignity of the senior citizens. Dr. Ankit Srivastava presented the vote of thanks.
