

RGNUL Career Counselling Seminar Achievers Speak

2nd November 2022

Public Relations, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab conducted online international seminar “How to Apply for Masters in UK European Countries” on 2nd November 2022. Mr Sahajveer Baweja, RGNUL alumnus and research scholar MPhil Criminology, University of Cambridge, elaborated on procedure of applying for LL.M in European countries. He provided comprehensive guidelines for writing an effective statement of purpose (SOP). He underscored the crucial need to revise draft before final submission. Recollecting his experiences while drafting SOP, Mr Baweja said, “I revised my SOP five times.” “Peer review of the drafts can enable the candidate to write with much clarity. Good writing skills are an asset,” he added. He guided students with specific queries related to choice of course of study and scholarships.

Dr Navleen Multani, Assistant Professor in English & PRO and Dr Sangeeta Taak, Assistant Professor of Law were panelist for this second session of Achievers Speak, RGNUL Career Counselling Seminar series initiated by Public Relations of the university. The panelists appreciated Mr Sahajveer’s efforts to give a roadmap to higher education abroad. The event was moderated by Ms. Jasmine Mangat and attended by students of BA.LLB (Hons.). Vote of thanks was extended by Ms. Harsheen Kaur Luthra.
