Symbiosis Law School, Noida wins 14th RGNUL National Moot Court Competition, 2026

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab, (RGNUL) successfully organised the 14th RGNUL National Moot Court Competition, 2026 on 17th-18th April, 2026. The competition aimed at acquainting the students with emerging jurisprudence on the expansion of anti-corruption laws to white collar-crimes, digital privacy, and constitutional safeguards concerning digital self-incrimination and bio-metrics, in an increasingly digital era.

The competition was organised by the RGNUL Moot Court Committee (RMCC) under the able guidance of faculty coordinator, Dr. Jaswinder Kaur, Assistant Professor of Law, and the Centre for Advanced Studies in Criminal Law, RGNUL. The moot proposition, was prepared by Mr. Souradeep Mukhopadhyay, who is currently the Assistant Professor at OP Jindal Global Law School. The proposition examined the scope of public servant status under the anti-corruption laws with reference to white-collar crimes, and evidence admissibility under various relevant laws. It addressed contemporary frontiers like digital privacy versus self-incrimination rights. It highlighted the friction between modern forensics and constitutional protections in India's evolving legal landscape.

Forty teams from various law schools across the country actively participated in the competition reiterating its truly national character. The competition was held in a phased manner with the preliminary and octa-final rounds held in virtual mode on 4th April 2026. Of the 40 teams, 8 teams qualified to the advanced rounds conducted on campus, i.e., Dr. DY Patil Law College, Navi Mumbai, Adv Balasaheb Apte College of Law, Dadar, Government Law College, Mumbai, Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi, National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kochi, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, Symbiosis Law School, Noida, and Institute of Law, NIRMA University, Ahmedabad.

After a closely contested Quarter-Final Rounds, the teams that qualified for the Semi-Final Rounds were Adv Balasaheb Apte College of Law, Dadar, National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kochi, Symbiosis Law School, Noida, and Campus Law Centre, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi. The teams from Adv Balasaheb Apte College of Law, Dadar and Symbiosis Law School, Noida advanced to the Final Rounds of the Competition.

The final rounds were presided over by an esteemed panel of judges which included Hon'ble Mr. Justice Shri Harnaam Singh Thakur, Judicial Member of the National Company Law Tribunal, Dr. Deepak Kumar Srivastava, Associate Professor and Officiating Registrar at Hidayatullah National Law University, Raipur and Professor Dr. Sharanjit Kaur, Professor of Law and Coordinator at the Centre for Advanced Studies in Criminal Law at Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law.

The team from Adv Balasaheb Apte College of Law, Dadar was adjudged as runners-up and the team from Symbiosis Law School, Noida was declared as the winner. The award for the Best Speaker was presented to S Krishnatara, from National University of Advanced Legal Studies, Kochi.
