

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S

Message

I, at the, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab am proud to welcome the new batches of BA.LL.B (Hons.) and LLM students. The University recognizes itself as a new class of educational institutions that are innovative, agile, and ingenious. In the face of the challenges and opportunities posed by the digital age, RGNUL has implemented ambitious strategies to ensure its students are equipped with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in the rapidly changing world.

RGNUL is committed to offering a comprehensive educational experience to its students. This commitment is reflected in the numerous initiatives the university has implemented to link academics with professional opportunities. For example, the Law Practicum program provides hands-on experience to students by allowing them to work on real-life legal cases. The Research Outcome Dissemination Series provides a platform for students to present their research to the academic community. Internships and the RGNUL Visiting Scholars Program are designed to give students practical experience in the field and to expose them to the latest developments in legal thought and practice.

Over the past 15 years, RGNUL has achieved significant milestones in its pursuit of excellence. The university was the first national law university to be accredited with an “A” Grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Committee and was also awarded academic autonomous status by the University Grants Commission. RGNUL has been recognized for its commitment to environmental sustainability, being awarded the Best Campus under the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan initiative. The university has also produced top-performing students, such as the winners of the Oxford Monroe E. Price Media Law Moot Court Competition in 2021-2022.

The continued growth and success of RGNUL can be attributed to its commitment to innovation and student engagement. The university is constantly exploring new and innovative ways to improve the quality of its educational offerings and to provide students with opportunities to develop their skills and knowledge. Whether it is through cutting-edge research, state-of-the-art infrastructure, or student-led initiatives, RGNUL is always pushing the boundaries of what is possible in legal education.

The university is poised to provide them with an exceptional educational experience that will prepare them for success in the digital age. Whether they are interested in criminal law, constitutional law, business law, or international law, RGNUL has something to offer. The university looks forward to watching its students grow and succeed as they embark on their journey towards excellence in the legal field.

Wishing you all success!

Professor (Dr.) Anand Pawar
Vice-Chancellor (Officiating)
Registrar, RGNUL, Punjab

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab (RGNUL) has been established by the State Legislature of Punjab by enacting the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). RGNUL campus is situated at Sidhuwal, Bhadson Road, Patiala (Punjab) which is about 70 km from Chandigarh. It is well connected by Air, Rail and Road. The University acquired approval of the Bar Council of India (BCI) in August 2006. The University got registered with the University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi under Section 2(f) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 and also got recognition under Section 12-B of the UGC Act. The RGNUL is regular member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi and several other prestigious National and International institutions / organizations. The RGNUL is the first National Law University which has been awarded 'A' Grade by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) after rigorous assessment based on various quality parameters. In Swachh Campus Rankings 2019, RGNUL was adjudged at First Rank (Cleanest) in the Country among Government Residential Universities by MHRD. RGNUL has also been accorded Graded Autonomy under the UGC (Categorisation of Universities (only) for Grant of Graded Autonomy) Regulations, 2018. RGNUL has been placed among top ten law institutions in the country by NIRF in 2019 and again in 2023. RGNUL bagged 16th position out of top 30 Institutes of Law in NIRF Ranking 2021 and was ranked 18th in 2022.

THE CAMPUS

IT FACILITIES

The newly established Server Room is equipped with Blade Server, Central Core Switches, and Security software's. All the IT facilities established in the various buildings of the University are managed through the Server Room. In the server room the university has latest configuration blade servers. All the software like Intranet, Anti-Virus, I P-Exchange server, Fax server, Voice message server, Network Management System, D H C P server are controlled through these bla de servers. The University has installed the latest configuration storage in the server room, where the data of all I P surveillance and Intranet has stored in it. All other WiFi controllers, and L 2 Switches, N K N Router, Fiber connectivity modules, IP exchange and U T M are a part of the Server Room. The entire LAN network of the university is connected with the server room is on 10 G speed.

The University has established three fully air conditioned computer Labs with 140 computers having latest configuration and high speed internet facility at R G N U L New Campus, Sidhuwal, Patiala. First Lab is equipped with 54 no's computers of HP, in the Second Lab there are around 70 no's Hi-tech Apple computers and in third Lab the university have around 16 no's of Dell All in One computers. The Dell Lab is established under U G C scheme of establishing/up gradation of Computer center in the Universities during Plan. These Labs are also equipped with latest windows and Microsoft office (Hp/Dell). In addition to that the university is also having a specific Lab equipped with Wi-Fi to be accessed by Students during Academic hours.

To provide the best use of IT in the field of education, the University has installed Interactive board, Projectors and Multimedia podium in each class rooms of R G N U L new campus at Sidhuwal, Patiala. The software supplied with the interactive whiteboard will usually allow the teacher to keep notes and annotations as an electronic file for later distribution either on paper or through a number of electronic formats. The University IT department is available to provide guidance to the students, faculty staff and Non-teaching staff in attaining expertise in operating computers. The academic curriculum of the University is largely oriented towards the use of latest technology. To interact with different universities, the video conferencing facility is also available in the University.

The IT department of the University updates and maintains the website according to the requirements of the Faculty and staff members of the University. One of the major achievements of the University is to provide Intranet facilities to all the students, Faculty and other staff members of the University. Daily notices, absentee record, event detail of the University, Syllabus, committee detail, and publications are available on intranet and updated frequently.

The University is having 1 G bps connectivity for its campus through B S N L under N M E I C T project. With the implementation of this mission the R G N U L is become a part of National Knowledge Network (N K N). This project provides E-connectivity for the students and the teachers; it helps the students in the field of Law and having communication with other Universities and also for their placement. To provide secure Internet connection the University is having Secured Firewall (Unified threat Management System) at its premises. It is an appliance that delivers real-time network protection against evolving Internet threats through unique user based policies. These hardware firewalls safeguard the network from the outside threats and intrusions. Use of IT facilities requires prior registration and the granting of a user code or an individual password. The RGNUL campus is a fully WiFi campus with access to Internet, Intranet and e-mail for 24 x 7 hours.

The University initiated its efforts by surfacing a plan for developing a Campus Wide Computer Network with a mandate to link together all the computing resources located in different departments, Research Center and other buildings of the University. Campus Networking (LAN/WiFi), University website, Internet, Intranet, I P Intercom Telephone exchange, I P Surveillance and other IT facilities like Class Room Interactive Board, Multimedia Podium, Projectors and sound system in all the class rooms and other buildings are also maintained by the IT department of the University. The University has connected various buildings like Academic and Administrative Block, Hostels, Faculty Residence, Facility area, Guest House etc. etc., through Fiber Optic Cable. The Single mode/ multi-mode fiber-optic cabling will be laid over a distance of about 3 km connecting to various departments of the University. Now all the Administrative Block, Guest House, Facility Complex, Hostels and Faculty Residence of the University are connected with single mode optical fiber backbone.

For the Safekeeping and to provide uninterrupted supply of all the IT equipment's like Computers, Printers, Projectors, Interactive Board, Multimedia Podium, WiFi equipment's, L 2 and L 3 switches, P cameras, I P phones etc. etc., the University has installed three 40 K V A (Total 120 K V A) Centralized at its premises. The main advantage of centralizing UPS is that by doing so, we can isolate all our maintenance, repair, replacement, and security at same single point. Even though all the UPS's works on redundant mode, if one UPS fails another UPS can cater the load to all the IT equipment's.

THE MOOT COURT HALL

Mooting is one of the prime academic exercises promoted in RGNUL. It is the policy of the University to encourage its students to participate in National and International moot court competitions. The University moot policy is backed by the contributions and inputs of the faculty members. The Moot Court hall has all the required modern facilities which provide an atmosphere conducive to young minds to focus on the legal debates at various moot court competitions. The University's moot court hall has a capacity of 250 persons. It is specifically designed to provide real Court room experience to the participants.

THE CAMPUS

HOSTELS

In consonance with the master plan of the RGNUL Campus, all the eleven hostel blocks (six for boys and five for girls) are in use. Respective hostels for boys and girls are equipped with separate mess / dining facilities, which are fully air conditioned.

All the hostels are equipped with aquaguard systems attached with water-coolers to ensure pure drinkable water supply, 24 hrs power backup. Proper hygiene and sanitation is maintained by housekeeping service. The hostels have round the clock security cover and all the hostels are equipped with Wi-fi connection. Sanitary vending machine and dispensers fitted in the Girls Hostel.

The hostel rooms are furnished with curtains, box type bed(s), study table(s), study chair(s), book shelves etc. Every room has been provided with wardrobe(s) having sufficient storage capacity; Wardrobe(s) contain locker for safe custody of valuables. Hostels have rooms for both single accommodation and double-accommodation. The rooms are allotted as per the policy of RGNUL. The hostels also provide space for Specially Abled Students. There are recreational facilities for the hostlers like Table-Tennis Boards, Televisions, Carrom Boards etc. Badminton courts are also available in the hostel compounds.

THE CAMPUS

UNIVERSITY GUEST HOUSE

The guest house is a double storied building. There are 4 suites, 28 rooms, Conference Hall, VIP Lounge, Waiting Area, and a spacious dining hall with kitchen. The best services and care is provided to the guests/parents during their stay at the guest house.

UNIVERSITY HEALTH AND COUNSELLING CENTRE

A University Health and Counselling Center (U H C) has been setup in the University. U H C has complete facilities for indoor admissions, minor surgeries, resuscitation equipment, vaccinations, and sterilization of equipment and stock of medicines for routine and emergency ailments. It functions for twenty four(24) hours. Among other efforts being undertaken by the UHC are: Gender Education, Acquiring Life Skills, Prevention of Addictions and Substance Abuse, Prevention of Sexually Transmitted Diseases, General Hygiene and Health, Counselling services etc., UHC also has taken up the onus of conducting routine health check up of students and staff, especially the food handlers in the canteen. Surveys on vaccination status are routinely conducted and necessary measures undertaken.

THE CAMPUS

GYMNASIUM AND SPORTS ACTIVITIES

The RGNUL Campus has a well equipped fitness centre, designed exclusively for the students. The gymnasium provides helpful and result oriented guidance for fitness and healthy living. The gym is well equipped with the latest fitness machines and equipments and is open throughout the year including vacations to provide facilities to residents at the campus. There are also indoor games facilities at the hostels. The University Stadium provides sports facilities like, Cricket, Football, Volleyball, Basketball, Racing Track etc.

RESEARCH INITIATIVES

RGNUL INTERNATIONAL VISITING SCHOLARS PROGRAM

RGNUL, Punjab has introduced an International Visiting Scholars Program. This distinct program is first of its kind to be introduced in a Law School in India. The program offers provision of both fully and partially funding for research. It is open to researchers, academicians, legal policy makers and professionals around the globe. Six international visiting scholars will be selected for a duration varying between one and six months. During the residential program, Visiting Scholars shall be given access to RGNUL Library for conducting comparative research. The selection will be based on the Research Plan submitted by the applicant. Additionally, the program aims to promote faculty exchange. Institutes willing to exchange faculty will be given preference.

RESEARCH OUTCOME DISSEMINATION SERIES (RODS)

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab has initiated Research Outcome Dissemination Series (RODS) to promote quality research. Dissemination of research findings is an integral part of the research process. The distribution of new knowledge gained through research can prompt application of innovative findings to real world situations. The utilization of research findings is of great interest to practitioners and policy makers. In order to enhance the visibility of research findings and to effectuate the implementation of new research, dissemination becomes imperative. RODS envisages quality legal and interdisciplinary research. RODS is open to collaborations and partnerships with governmental departments, academic institutions, non-profit organizations, national and international think tanks.

LAW PRACTICUM SERIES

RGNUL Punjab has integrated Law Practicum Series in curriculum to bridge the gap between academic courses and the skills lawyers require for practice. Law Practicum Series will help to engage students in a capstone learning experience. This innovative pedagogy aims to enhance knowledge and competence of RGNUL students to address challenges and problems in legal fields.

INTERDISCIPLINARY TEACHING

In order to expand the canvas of the teaching and to drift away from the conventional scheme of teaching a new methodology of teaching has been introduced. It emphasizes upon the convergence of interdisciplinary interests into the teaching of various laws and social science subjects in the university. Following the interdisciplinary approach all the Law and social sciences teachers are contributing to the teaching of certain topics related to their area of expertise and interest.

FACULTY INCENTIVE FOR RESEARCH

Research addresses a variety of pertinent issues and advances knowledge. In the rapidly changing world, new developments and technology pose challenges to institutes of higher education. It is essential to promote level of research with the changing times. Teaching and research, are mutually exclusive and complementary components of the higher education. Research allows broader learning experience to students also. In order to provide impetus to high quality research, RGNUL offers various incentives. The University has initiated Faculty Research Incentive Scheme to encourage faculty to publish in Scopus indexed journals.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT CELL

RGNUL has established a Research and Development Cell as per UGC Letter NO. 1-5/2021 (NEP/Desk-Parl.) dated 29.04.2022 and National Education Policy (NEP 2020). The National Education Policy 2020 focuses on catalyzing quality research in the nation and lays the framework to strengthen research ecosystems in Higher Education. The aim of the RDC is to pave the way for integrating the key elements –Research, Innovation and Technology Development for India's Atma-Nirbhar Bharat Mission and addresses our societal challenges of the 21st Century. To create a conducive environment for enhanced research productivity, encourage collaboration across industry, government, community-based organisations, and agencies at the local, national and international levels and facilitate greater access to research through mobilization of resources and funding.

PEDAGOGY

PEDAGOGY

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab offers an exceptional curriculum for Undergraduate/Postgraduate Programmes, B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) FYIC/LL.M. (One Year), and adopts an effective pedagogy to empower learners with legal knowledge. An array of core and optional subjects collectively provide fundamentals for holistic understanding of the laws. While students acquire knowledge through skill based activities, legal research and project work, innovative pedagogical methods enhance their legal reasoning and problem solving competence. The improvisation of these novel instructional strategies addresses the multiple dimensions of education and the gaps in learning.

RGNUL STUDENT ACADEMIC ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT POLICY (RSAASP)

RGNUL Student Academic Assistance and Support Policy (RSAASP) offers an opportunity for the academic growth of the students. The aim of RSAASP is to enhance the efficacy of the learning environment for students from diverse educational background. RSAASP is assisted by committees comprising faculty and student assistants. RSAASP encompasses a broad array of academic activities- access to support for resolving academic queries, acquaintance with the contours and requirements of the course, extra-tutorial assistance, comprehension of Project Work, aid for non-English medium/language related issues, guidance for research and practical exposure/training-throughout the five-year B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Programme. The Policy reflects the collaborative spirit at RGNUL as faculty and students coordinate for the management of activities. RSAASP ensures productive assistance to new students, facilitates initial transition to University studies, encourages inter-batch association and extends another avenue of learning in integration with the classroom environment.

RGNUL STUDENT MENTORSHIP PROGRAM

A student mentorship program has also been introduced which is beneficial for personal and professional growth of students. The mentor, a senior student having prowess/distinction in different fields, guides new students (mentees) in matters pertaining personal and professional domain. The guidelines to formalise 'Student Mentorship Program' at RGNUL.

STUDENTS PARTICIPATION IN RESEARCH PROJECTS

Various Research Centres at RGNUL are engaged in carrying out important Research Projects. It is intended to involve students in certain Research Projects with a view to improve their research skills and also to ensure that they imbibe the applied aspects of law in action.

ABSOLUTE NO TO RAGGING

"Ragging" means causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his / her person or exposes him / her to ridicule, or compels him / her to forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining or injuring him / her or by using criminal force to him / her, or by holding out to him / her any threat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force.

Ragging being an evil practice, is inhuman, illegal and punishable. It violates the discipline of an educational institution and adversely affects the standards of higher education. Ragging in educational institutions is banned by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. The Hon'ble Court has issued mandatory orders to curb the menace of ragging in educational institutions. If an applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or it is noticed later that he / she has indulged in ragging, his / her admission may be refused or he / she shall be expelled from the educational institution. The punishment may also be in other forms, such as suspension from the classes for a limited period, or fine with a public apology, debarring from representation in events, withholding results, suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess, and the like. If the Head of the Institution is not satisfied with these arrangements for action, a First Information Report (FIR) can be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police. The discretionary power vests solely with the University Authorities.

We at RGNUL are committed to removing ragging in all forms. In compliance with the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court of the country, RGNUL has constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee. Anti-Ragging Committee comprises four faculty members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Anti-Ragging Committee of the University shall assist to observe the recommendations / directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court without exception, and if it is observed that there is any deviation, the Committee shall inform the University authorities.

"Let's together curb this menace".

NO
RAGGING

ABSOLUTE NO TO RAGGING

According to the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in University of Kerala v. Council of Principals' of Colleges in Kerala, (in SLP no. 24295 of 2006 dated 16.05.2007) ragging within or outside any educational institution is strictly prohibited.

- 'Ragging' means any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indiscipline activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
- The University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi has also taken a stern view of the problem of ragging and has also issued the necessary guidelines to curb the menace of ragging.

According to the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the following recommendations need immediate implementation:

- The punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents;
- Every single incident of ragging where the victim or his parent/guardian or the Head of institution is not satisfied with the institutional arrangement for action, a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities;
- Courts should make an effort to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken upon priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but is also to be dealt with sternness;
- The court has directed the exploration of possibility of introducing in the educational curriculum, a subject relating to ragging;
- In the prospectus to be issued for admission by educational institutions, it shall be clearly stipulated that in case the applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or if it is noticed later that he has indulged in ragging, admission may be refused or he shall be expelled from the educational institution;
- The Central Government and the State Governments shall launch a programme giving wide publicity to the menace of ragging and the consequences which follow in case any student is detected to have been involved in ragging;
- Role of the concerned institution shall also be open to scrutiny for the purpose of finding out whether they have taken effective steps for preventing ragging and in case of their failure, action can be taken against them, too;
- Anti-Ragging Committees and squads shall forthwith be formed by the institutions to see that the Committees' recommendations are observed without exception and if it is noticed that there is any deviation, the same shall forthwith be brought to the notice of this Court; and
- The Committee constituted pursuant to the order of this Court shall continue to monitor the functioning of the Anti-Ragging Committees and the squads to be formed. They shall also monitor the implementation of the recommendations to which reference has been made above.

Acts Amounting to Ragging Could be:

- ☆ Teasing, Embarrassing and Humiliating;
- ☆ Assaulting or Using Criminal Force or Criminal Intimidation;
- ☆ Wrongfully Restraining or Confining or Causing Hurt;
- ☆ Causing Grievous Hurt, Kidnapping or Rape or Committing Unnatural Offence; and
- ☆ Causing Death or Abetting Suicide.
