

RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB
(Established under Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006)
(Accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC)

RGNU/PRO/2023/155
Date: 29-04-2023

RGNU organises National Seminar on Alternative Dispute Resolution April 29, 2023

Dr. P.C. Markanda Chair on ADR and Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CADR), RGNUL, Punjab organised 1st RGNUL Annual National Seminar on 'Alternative Dispute Resolution: The Way Forward' on 29th April, 2023. The objective of the conference was to provide a platform for the students, researchers and academicians to share their knowledge and ideas about the future of Alternative Dispute Resolution in the modern world. This paper presentation cum seminar serves as a stepping stone to further promote advanced research in the field of ADR.

There were eight parallel virtual technical sessions and around 45 papers were presented on various themes of ADR relating to the topics such as International Commercial Arbitration, ADR as a tool in matrimonial disputes, Arbitrability of aviation and space disputes, Interplay between ADR and Artificial Intelligence, Green Arbitration- A road towards environmental stability and ADR as a pathbreaker to solve the insolvency proceedings.

The conference was conducted under the guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Anand Pawar, Vice-Chancellor, RGNUL, Dr. Gurmanpreet Kaur, Associate Professor of Law, RGNUL and Dr. Wazida Rahman, Assistant Professor of Law, RGNUL.

Public Relation Officer

Registrar/Vice-Chancellor

The Tribune

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

45 papers presented at Law University seminar in Patiala

SHARE ARTICLE

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL) here organised its first annual national seminar on “Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR): The Way Forward” on Friday. - File photo

Patiala, April 29

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL) here organised its first annual national seminar on “Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR): The Way Forward” on Friday. The seminar was organised by Dr PC Markanda Chair on ADR and Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution (CADR), RGNUL. The seminar was organised with an objective to provide a platform to the students, researchers and academicians to share their knowledge and ideas about the future of ADR in modern world. “This paper presentation-cum-seminar serves as a stepping stone to further promote advanced research in the field of ADR,” a university official said. The university held eight parallel virtual technical sessions where 45 papers were presented on the themes of ADR relating to international commercial arbitration, ADR as a tool in matrimonial disputes, arbitrability of aviation and space disputes, interplay between ADR and artificial intelligence, green arbitration: a road towards environmental stability and ADR as a path breaker to solve the insolvency proceedings.