

RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB
(Established under Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006)
(Accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC)

RGNU/PRO/2022/75

Date: 18-05-2022

RGNU organises Faculty Development Workshop on Research Skills
18th May 2022

The Centre for Constitutional Law and Governance (CCLG) and Centre for Advanced Studies in Labour Welfare (CASLW) in collaboration with IQAC, RGNU, Punjab organized 3-day Faculty Development Workshop on "Research Skills, Pedagogy and Citation". The workshop was organized with the objective to enhance research skills of the faculty and the research scholars. It addressed the problems and challenges of quantitative & qualitative research in law and social sciences.

Professor Steve Ngo, President of Beihai Asia International Arbitration Centre, Singapore, Member, Chartered Institution of Arbitrators, United Kingdom (MCIARB), Distinguished Professor, RGNU, Punjab; Dr. Garima Tiwari, Associate Professor Bennett University; Dr. Rangin P. Tripathy, Professor of Law, NLU, Odisha and Prof.G.S.Bajpai, Vice-Chancellor, RGNU, Punjab were resource persons for the workshop. The experts explored the research skills required to cope up with the information overload. The technical sessions focused on scientific results and effective research-based communication.

Prof. Steve Ngo deliberated on the systemic approach to research in the field of international arbitration and ADR. Dr. Garima Tiwari's presentation was titled "Introduction to OSCOLA Mode of Citation Usage and Application". She explained OSCOLA mode and highlighted on the ethics and principles of citation. Dr. Rangin P. Tripathy, Professor of Law, NLU, Odisha elaborated on databases for research.

Prof. G.S.Bajpai, Vice-Chancellor, RGNU, Punjab emphasized on the art of generating data for research. "Data cultivation is an important process that entails selection of variables to suit the design of research,” he said. Expanding on “Utilization of Databases for Legal Research”, Prof. Bajpai accentuated the need to use relevant tools to maximize objectivity in research.

RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB
(Established under Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006)
(Accredited with 'A' Grade by NAAC)

Prof. Anand Pawar, Registrar, RGNUL, Punjab was also present during this workshop.

Faculty growth programme on research skills

PATIALA, MAY 18

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law organised a faculty development workshop on research skills, pedagogy and citation focussed on enhancing research skills of faculty and research scholars to address problems and challenges of quantitative and qualitative research in law and social sciences. The university centre for constitutional law and governance, and the centre for advanced studies in labour welfare organised the workshop.

Prof Steve Ngo, president, Beihai Asia International Arbitration Centre, Singapore, discussed the systemic approach to research in the field of international arbitration. — TNS