

The Sunday

CHANDIGARH, LATE CITY
OCTOBER 12, 2025
18+4 PAGES, ₹5.00

EXPRESS

OCTOBER 12, 2025

4

Law noble profession, uphold compassion alongside competence: Justice Thakur

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PATIALA OCTOBER 11

THE RAJIV Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Patiala, hosted an event, "Campus to Corporate: Charting a Career in Corporate Law," aimed at guiding students toward the corporate legal world and preparing them for industry challenges.

The ceremony began with the lamp lighting and the convenor's address, followed by felicitations of the dignitaries. The Vice-Chancellor highlighted the "dynamic nature of the legal profession" and encouraged students to explore diverse avenues, including corporate law, litigation, academia, and public service.

In his keynote address, Justice Harnam Singh Thakur, judicial member, National Company Law Tribunal, Chandigarh, inspired students to uphold compassion alongside competence, calling law "a noble profession". Citing Swami Vivekananda's Three Ds Determination, Discipline, and Dedication and Three Ps Purity, Patience, and Perseverance, he urged students to "Arise, Awake, and Stop not till the goal is achieved."

During the event at Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Patiala, on Saturday. Express

Dr Shiva Satish Sharda, faculty coordinator, emphasised the "central role of research in every branch of law" and assured continued institutional support for students' career growth.