

RGNUL Exagium 2018 , Online International Essay Writing Competition

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab organized RGNUL Exagium 2018, International Essay Writing Competition. This online event was opened to the Undergraduates, Postgraduates and Research Scholars of diverse disciplines in Oct 2017. Several essays based on the reading of literary classics were received from India and abroad -- Jamia Millia Islamia Delhi, Army Institute of Law Mohali, Govt. Law College Mumbai, NULAS Kochi, NLU Jodhpur, Banasthali University Rajasthan, UPES Dehradun, Apeejay College of Fine Arts Jalandhar, TOPU Sri Lanka, SOAS London, University of Delhi, Amity Law School, Noida and RGNUL. Thirty six students pursuing various degrees - BA.LLB. (Hons.), MA (English), MBBS, BTech, BA (Hons.) and BSA (Comp. Sci.) - participated in this event. The essays were adjudged by English Language and Literature Experts.

Mansi Rawat and Vani Sirkeck of MA (English), Deptt. of English and Cultural Studies, Panjab University won the First Position for their essay on George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four. Ayushi Singh BA.LLB. (Hons.), NLU Jodhpur and Chanima Wijebandara BA (English + ELT), The Open University of Sri Lanka were adjudged second. The third position was bagged by Mohit Kumar Tanwar BALLB (Hons.) Jamia Millia Islamia Delhi and Sharanya Shrivastva BA.LLB. (Hons.), Army Institute of Law Mohali. Earlier Abhilash Pattnaik of RGNUL BA.LLB. (Hons.) won the first prize in RGNUL Exagium 2017. Abhishek of BA, Dyal Singh College New Delhi won the first prize in RGNUL Exagium 2016.