

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law's (RGNUL) Cultural Committee has been actively involved in organizing a diverse range of events, fostering a vibrant and inclusive cultural environment within the university. The committee's efforts have created opportunities for students to showcase their talents, celebrate cultural diversity, and engage in meaningful celebrations. Through our initiatives in the academic year 2022-23, we have tried to reflect our commitment to fostering talent, celebrating diversity, and enhancing the cultural fabric of the university. Here is an overview of our work:

Ganesh Chaturthi Celebrations (August 31, 2022):

The Cultural Committee began the academic year with a grand celebration of Ganesh Chaturthi, marked by a Traditional Day. Encouraging students and faculty to don ethnic attire, the event aimed to showcase and celebrate the diverse cultural backgrounds within the university.

Tribute to Shaheed Bhagat Singh - Nukkad Natak (September 28, 2022):

Commemorating the birth anniversary of the iconic freedom fighter, Shaheed Bhagat Singh, the committee organized a poignant Nukkad Natak titled 'A Tribute to Shaheed Bhagat Singh.' The powerful performance depicted the life and ideals of Bhagat Singh, leaving a lasting impact on the audience.

Fresher's 2022 and 2023:

Welcoming the new batch, the committee played a pivotal role in organizing the Fresher's event for the batches over the years. In this academic session, we had the opportunity to organise two fresher's events, called 'Summer High' and the 'After Hours'. The event unfolds over two days, featuring both traditional and ball-themed celebrations. Open mic sessions, talent showcases, and various fresher's competitions created an interactive platform, and talent display.

Hum Sab Sahmat - Art and India's Freedom Struggle (November 9-11, 2022):

In collaboration with the Safdar Hashmi Memorial Trust (SAHMAT), the Cultural Committee organised an art festival, Silsila 1.0. The festival showcased an exhibition titled 'Hum Sab Sahmat,' centering around furthering the values of India's freedom struggle. The event included documentary screenings, cultural performances, and discussions, emphasizing the intersection of law and art.

'Rehnuma' Song-Releasing Ceremony (February 15, 2023):

The committee continued its cultural endeavors with the song-releasing ceremony of Mr. Chandan Bhati, a fifth-year student at RGNUL. This event celebrated musical talents within the university, fostering an atmosphere of encouragement and support for artistic pursuits.

AAFREEN 2023 - Virtual Music Competition (August 10-20, 2023):

Antara, the esteemed music society under the Cultural Committee, presented AAFREEN 2023, a virtual music competition that received widespread acclaim. Attracting talented participants from various colleges and universities, the competition transcended the university boundaries, showcasing the committee's dedication to promoting artistic talents.

Inter-Batch Dance Competition - Jashn-e-Jhoom (October 25, 2023):

The committee organised the inaugural edition of the inter-batch dance competition, Jashn-e-Jhoom. The event aimed to bring together students from various batches, including LLM, to display their dancing prowess. The competition featured solo and duet/group performances, creating a platform for students to exhibit their creativity and passion for dance. The event was very well received and saw substantial participation from all batches, enhancing the sense of community among the students.

The Cultural Committee at RGNUL has played a pivotal role in creating a dynamic cultural milieu, emphasizing inclusivity, talent appreciation, and community engagement. Through a spectrum of events, we have attempted to bring together students, faculty, art and culture, fostering a sense of unity and celebration within the university.
