WORLD INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY DAY, 2023

World Intellectual Property Day is celebrated annually on April 26th to raise awareness about the importance of intellectual property rights (IPR) and how they contribute to innovation and creativity. This year's theme is "Women and IP: Celebrating Innovation: Building a Green Future" which is honouring the "can do" mentality of female innovators, artists, and entrepreneurs worldwide and their ground-breaking achievements. The purpose of World Intellectual Property Day events is to increase public understanding of the importance of intellectual property and how it encourages creativity and innovation.

PANEL DISCUSSION

CIIPR-RGNUL is ecstatic to invite you and your partners to participate in an interactive panel discussion on the occasion of World IP Day, in hybrid mode at the RGNUL campus based on the theme: "The Intersection of Artificial Intelligence and Intellectual Property Law: Legal and Ethical Considerations". Our panellists will include leading experts in the fields of AI and intellectual property law, and we believe that your participation would add valuable perspectives to the discussion. Dr. Shiva Satish Sharda, Assistant Professor of law at RGNUL will enlighten the attendees on "Evolving Dynamics of Synthetic Data" as a panellist. The panellists will share insights on real-world legal and ethical issues they've encountered when integrating AI into their organizational practices or when interacting with AI technologies implemented externally.
