« RGNUL Accredited with Grade 'A' by NAAC »

A moment of great pride and satisfaction as Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab has been accredited with 'A' Grade scoring CGPA of 3.32 out of 4 points. Among the 18 National Law Universities across the country, the RGNUL is the first and only National Law University of Law, that has been accredited by NAAC so far. Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) had recently issued a circular, making it mandatory for all institutes of higher learning to seek accreditation. National Assessment and Accreditation Council, Bangalore (NAAC) is the statutory body discharging this responsibility. The mandate of NAAC is to make quality the defining element of higher education in India on various parameters which inter alia include Curricular Design; Teaching Learning Evaluation; Research and Consultancy; Student Support and Progression; Leadership and Governance; Innovative Practices and Infrastructure. Assessment and evaluation is a combination of self and external quality evaluation, promotion and sustenance initiatives. The NAAC Peer Team comprising, Prof. Mehraj-ud-Din, Vice-Chancellor, Central University of Kashmir Transit Campus, Sonwar, Srinagar (J&K); Prof. (Dr.) M.S. Soundara Pandian, Director, School of Excellence in Law, The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, Poompozhi, Chennai; Dr. Ashok R. Patil, Chair Professor, Chair of Consumer Law and Practice (Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Government of India), Nagarbhavi, Bangalore, Karnataka; Prof. Sanjukta Bhattacharya, Professor, Department of International Relations, Jadavpur University, Kolkata and Prof. P.G. Marvania, Professor, Department of Economics, Saurashtra University, Rajkot, Gujarat, visited the RGNUL Campus from 26th-29th April, 2015. During the four-day visit, the peer team interacted with all stakeholders and checked records and appraised the work undertaken by the university, since its inception. The focus of assessment was with reference to three aspects Quality initiative, Quality sustenance and Quality enhancement. The RGNUL established Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) under the guidelines issued by the UGC. IQAC coordinated the entire assessment and accreditation exercise.

» Prize Distribution Ceremony for International Humanitarian Law (CASH) – ENSAYO: South Essay Writing Competition on International Humanitarian Law

The 12th August, 2014 marked the coming together of the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL) and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), Regional Delegation for South Asia, New Delhi to award the winners of the 5th and 6th editions of ENSAYO, the annual essay writing competition coupled with the 150th anniversary celebration of the ICRC along with the 65 years of the Geneva Convention. ENSAYO is an essay writing competition on diverse sub-themes within the larger purview of International Humanitarian Law and is marked by overwhelming participation of students from across South Asia. The theme for the 2013 edition- 'Moving Beyond the Rhetoric: New Global and Domestic Challenges of Enforcement in International Humanitarian Law'- as also the broader notion of 'International Humanitarian Law: Prospects and Challenges' (2014) emerges from the realization that the 21st century has failed to prove to be any different from the previous one since the global landscape continues to be riddled with conflict; given this scenario, the need for global, regional and domestic activism can hardly be undermined.

The occasion was marked by the presence of Dr. (Prof.) Paramjit S. Jaswal, Vice Chancellor, RGNUL and the Chief Guest at the occasion; Dr. (Prof.) G.I.S. Sandhu, Registrar, RGNUL; Dr. Anuradha Saibaba, Academic Programmes, ICRC and Mr. Sahadeo Rawoot, Economic Security

The Inaugural was held on 13th March 2015 for which Professor (Dr.) Ranbir Singh, Vice-Chancellor, National Law University, Delhi was the Chief Guest and the Guest of Honour was Professor (Dr.) Balram Gupta, Former Director, National Judicial Academy, Bhopal. Professor (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal, Vice-Chancellor, RGNUL, Punjab while welcoming the dignitaries and the delegates focused on Orientation for the concept and relevance of Human Rights. The Chief Guest while referring to 15th August 1947 remarked "the dawn is yet to come for many Indians". His deliberations emphasized on India and Indians being actually and adequately socialist, sovereign, republic and democratic! Professor Ranbir referred to the Poverty of Rights in context of India which is sectionalized as rich India, poor India, street India, India surviving on discarded food, India working in night hours, invisible India which is not liked to be seen and other such categories; this makes the concept of rights much more complex. The Guest of Honour initiated his speech by saying that teachers live in the reflected glory of their students. Academics and academia have responsible role to play in human rights. Judiciary according to him has played an appreciable role in protecting human rights; yet lot is done but much more is to be done. Professor Balram opined that all human beings

About 120 research papers were received and about 70 papers had been selected for presentations. The deliberations were made through eight Academic Sessions of the Seminar.

Professor (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal, Vice-Chancellor, RGNUL in his welcome speech talked about linguistic and religious minorities in detail through Political and Historical perspectives. The concept of minority is relative under the concept of cultural variability and relativism. According to him, the status of minorities is not a justifiable even after 67 years of independence. Quality education is the strongest tool of empowerment the subjugated groups and minorities; and also policy implementation and prioritization.

The Key Note Speaker focused on the constitutional space provided to the minorities and also opined that the minorities have suffered due to forces of exclusion. The Chief Guest Justice Vaish elaborated and analysed the constitutional freedom with focused reference to the
