 “To lead people, walk beside them ... As for the best leaders, the people do not notice their existence. The next best, the people honor and praise. The next, the people fear; and the next, the people hate ... When the best leader's work is done the people say, 'We did it ourselves!'”

Lao-Tsu

 “The people with whom you work reflect your own attitude. If you are suspicious, unfriendly and condescending, you will find these unlovely traits echoed all about you. But if you are on your best behavior, you will bring out the best in the persons with whom you are going to spend most of your working hours.”

ABSOLUTE NO TO RAGGING

"Ragging" means causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his / her person or exposes him / her to ridicule, or compels him / her to forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining or injuring him / her or by using criminal force to him / her, or by holding out to him / her any threat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force.

Ragging being an evil practice, is inhuman, illegal and punishable. It violates the discipline of an educational institution and adversely affects the standards of higher education. Ragging in educational institutions is banned by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. The Hon'ble Court has issued mandatory orders to curb the menace of ragging in educational institutions. If an applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or it is noticed later that he / she has indulged in ragging, his / her admission may be refused or he / she shall be expelled from the educational institution. The punishment may also be in other forms, such as suspension from the classes for a limited period, or fine with a public apology, debarring from representation in events, withholding results, suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess, and the like. If the Head of the Institution is not satisfied with these arrangements for action, a First Information Report (FIR) can be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police. The discretionary power vests solely with the University Authorities.

We at RGNUL are committed to removing ragging in all forms. In compliance with the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court of the country, RGNUL has constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee. Anti-Ragging Committee comprises four faculty members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Anti-Ragging Committee of the University shall assist to observe the recommendations / directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court without exception, and if it is observed that there is any deviation, the Committee shall inform the University authorities.

- 'Ragging' means any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indisposed activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
- The University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi has also taken a stern view of the problem of ragging and has also issued the necessary guidelines to curb the menace of ragging.

According to the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the following recommendations need immediate implementation:

- The punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents;
- Every single incident of ragging where the victim or his parent/guardian or the Head of institution is not satisfied with the institutional arrangement for action, a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities;
- Courts should make an effort to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken upon priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but is also to be dealt with sternness;
- The court has directed the exploration of possibility of introducing in the educational curriculum, a subject relating to ragging;
- In the prospectus to be issued for admission by educational institutions, it shall be clearly stipulated that in case the applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or if it is noticed later that he has indulged in ragging, admission may be refused or he shall be expelled from the educational institution;
- The Central Government and the State Governments shall launch a programme giving wide publicity to the menace of ragging and the consequences which follow in case any student is detected to have been involved in ragging;
- Role of the concerned institution shall also be open to scrutiny for the purpose of finding out whether they have taken effective steps for preventing ragging and in case of their failure, action can be taken against them, too;
- Anti-Ragging Committees and squads shall forthwith be formed by the institutions to see that the Committees' recommendations are observed without exception and if it is noticed that there is any deviation, the same shall forthwith be brought to the notice of this Court; and

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake
