

ORIENTATION WEEK DAY 1 –AUGUST 2025 REPORT

Sensitization Session on Sexual Harassment Awareness by the Presiding Officer, Internal Committee

The first day of the Orientation Week, for the new batch commenced with the introduction about the introduction to Anti-Ragging Policy, the Internal Complaints Committee, and the SC/ST Cell. The address was delivered by the Dean Students Welfare. Prof. (Dr.) Kamaljit Kaur, who apprised the new students about the university's approach of zero tolerance towards ragging. The Dean Students' Welfare guided the students on how to use the complaint mechanisms wisely by using the complaint forms available at the university website. She assured them that in any case, the university officials will stand by the students to protect and safeguard them against any problems they might face during their stay at the university. The Dean also emphasized upon her points by screening two videos related to the issues.
