Editorial

The academic session 2019-2020 saw hectic activity throughout: from organizing Winter School to collaborating with Seven (7) National Law Schools for ICDT conference; the session witnessed number of student activities on campus and student achievements off campus. RGNUL, this year too, has been ranked 10th in the NIRF Law category for the year 2020; RGNUL was adjudged the cleanest University (First Rank) in the category of Government Institutions in Swachh Campus Rankings 2019, conducted by Ministry of Human Resource Development

Government of India. In the context of these achievements it is pertinent to mention that RGNUL has always perceived education (legal education) as part of the greater paradigm that aims for holistic development of cognitive skills and enables recognition of meta cognitive skills.

The pandemic situation saw effortless shift of teaching to online platforms and successful completion of the academic and administrative business. Looking forward to an engaging and dynamic new academic session.

■ ORIENTATION WEEK (July 2019)

Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab began its Academic session (2019-2020) by organizing the Orientation Programme for B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) FYIC batch 2019-2024. ■ COLLOQUIUM ON DECONSTRUCTING GENDER IDENTITIES AND STRUCTURES OF POWER (5 March 2020)

Department of English and Centre for Environmental Legal Studies, Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab organized Colloquium on Deconstructing Gender Identities and Structures of Power. The resource persons for the colloquium were Ms. Upma Chowdhry, IAS (Retd.); Dr. Rajesh Gill, Professor of Sociology, Department of Sociology, Panjab University, Chandigarh; Dr. Rumina Sethi, Professor of English, Department and Cultural Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh and Dr.

Dr. Abhinandan Bassi; Dr. Upasana Mahanta, Associate Professor Jindal Global Law School, Sonapat;
Dr. Rumina Sethi, Professor of English, Department and Cultural Studies, Panjab University, Chandigarh
Professor (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal, Vice-Chancellor, RGNUL, Punjab; Ms. Upma Chowdhry, IAS (Retd.); Dr. Tanya Mander; and
Dr. Renuka Soni Coordinator of the Colloquium

Upasana Mahanta, Associate Professor Jindal Global Law School, Sonipat.

The colloquium opened with the Mahanta etching the trajectory of Women's rights movements and posing questions such as are sentiments problematic and how personal is political? Ms Upma Chawdhry articulated the history of Indian administrative services in relation to rules pertaining to women officers. Ms. Chawdhry suggested reconstruction of gender relations with special focus on women representation; workplaces to evolve flexible timing; to design, construct and manage work environments; critical needs of society to reboot and challenge the templates that endorse the male behavior. Dr. Rumina Sethi, underlined the role that language plays in projecting unconsciously gender roles; and that the feminist movement in India truly began with policies that began to change and re-draft curriculums but she also underlined how certain subjects and streams are feminine and others masculine. Dr. Sethi explored the essential differences between 'female', 'feminine' and 'feminist'. Dr. Rajesh Gill, steered the talk towards the gap between the urban and rural understanding of empowerment. She quoted Global Gender Gap Report 2020 which says that it will takes 257 years more to reach gender parity. She highlighted the idea and context of violence – physical and psychological – and how laws have changed and evolved but have still a long journey ahead. The coordinators of the Colloquium Dr. Renuka Soni and Dr. Tanya Mander highlighted the complex ways in which gender is constructed and how women are treated as robotic receptacles of culture without any active agency. It was followed by question answer session with the students. ``

The colloquium was graced by the presence of the worthy Vice-Chancellor, Professor (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal and Prof. (Dr.) Naresh Kumar Vats, Registrar, RGNUL.

■ THE NATIONAL CADET CORPS

It is a matter of great pride that the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab has been allotted one platoon (50 cadets) of the National Cadet Corps (NCC) by the 5 Punjab NCC Battalion with effect from the academic session 2019-20.

The NCC has three wings namely the Army wing, the Air Force wing and the Navy wing. The NCC provides the most suitable environment to motivate the youth of the country to join the defence forces which includes the overall development of their personality, punctuality and to be the responsible citizens of the country. The NCC aims to create and develop discipline, a spirit of adventure and team work among the school, college and university going students. The cadets are formally selected to ensure their medical and physical fitness. From time to time the NCC organizes different state and national level camps for the cadets. The basic objective of these camps is to train the young cadets for the military life. The Annual Training Camps are the great learning experiences for the cadets as during these camps they are made to learn, understand and train themselves for the disciplined life in the defence forces of our country. During such camps, the cadets are made to undergo physical training, parade drill and exercises in the morning, in the day time classes are conducted by the army personnel, they are also given rifle training and the evenings are reserved for cultural activities. In the national level NCC camps the cadets undergo training in different parts of the country. Such camps go a long way in promoting national integration and a spirit of brotherhood among the youth.

The NCC cadets of RGNUL had weekly parade and drill training exercises under the guidance and supervision of a Defence Personnel as the Instructor from the 5 Punjab NCC Battalion, Patiala. Theory classes on different aspects of the NCC training like understanding the aims and objectives of NCC, ORGANISATION TRAINING AND NCC song, incentives to cadets, duties responsibilities and conduct by NCC, NCC camps: Recce, selection of camp site, camp hygiene and camp routine, disaster management, assistance during natural disaster, fire services and fire fighting, civil defence organization and their duties were also taken on regular basis by the Care taker of NCC at RGNUL.
