

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab organized a guest lecture by Dr. Kazuma Mizukoshi, on 27th February 2025. Dr. Mizukoshi, a Doctorate from University College of London, UK and faculty, Thapar School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Thapar University, delivered the lecture on highlighting Latin America's political dynamics and how it interacts and shapes the world order. His lecture was an insight into the global south and its problems. Dr. Shveta Dhaliwal, the host faculty, Department of Political Science, RGNUL, said that this lecture is a step towards promoting interdisciplinary and holistic knowledge.

Dr. Mizukoshi said that he himself finds the interdisciplinary aspect of research very fascinating as he holds a degree of LL.M. from Keio University, Japan and is pursuing research in international relations. The lecture was attended by more than 150 students and Ph.D. scholars of the university. Dr. Ivneet Walia, The Registrar (Officiating) felicitated Dr. Mizukoshi.