

1ST RGNUL SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT LAW NATIONAL MEDIATION COMPETITION

April 12-14, 2019

RULES FOR SUBMISSION OF MEDIATION PLAN

1. All teams are required to submit a Mediation Plan for each of the preliminary rounds.
2. Teams are required to submit the plans from the following sides:
 - a. Prelim 1 - Karhadkar Group as the Requesting Party
 - b. Prelim 2 - Community Prime as the Responding Party
3. The Mediation Plan Outline provided by the Organising Committee is to be appropriately filled in by the teams. Teams shall not make any changes to the format of the Mediation Plan, nor shall they add or omit any sections in the Mediation Plan.
4. The Mediation Plans have to be typed in Times New Roman Font in Font Size 12, with 1.5 Line Spacing.
5. There is no word limit for the Mediation Plans. However, the teams are requested to be precise and to the point.
6. The deadline for submission of the soft copy of the Mediation Plans is April 10, 2019 at 11:59 PM.
7. Teams are required to bring 2 hard copies of each of the Mediation Plans for submission to the Organising Committee during Registration on April 12, 2019.
8. The Mediation Plans will be assessed by Mediation experts appointed by the Organising Team out of a total of 100 points on the appropriateness, innovativeness and originality of the solutions offered. Strategies will be marked on the basis of quality of content and not length of the content.

9. Delay in submission of Mediation Plans or any differences in the hard copy and the soft copy submissions will result in appropriate penalties being imposed on the teams, up to a maximum penalty of 20 points.
10. The submission of the Mediation Plans is for the purpose of the Special Award for Best Mediation Plan in the Preliminary Rounds. The scores for the Mediation Plans will not be added to the scores of Mediation Sessions and will not affect the scores of the preliminary rounds in any manner.
11. The decision of the Organising Committee as to the interpretation of these Rules shall be final and conclusive.
