Justice Anil R. Dave
Judge
Supreme Court of India

7, Krishna Menon Marg,
New Delhi-110011

Hon'ble Mr. Justice Anil R. Dave

Judge, Supreme Court of India and Visitor, RGNUL

The RGNUL has shown phenomenal growth in academic endeavours, research pursuits and infrastructure development. The RGNUL alumni today is amongst the well placed and well-paid lot. It is heartening to see the students' achievements at both national and international level. This year RGNUL students qualified for International rounds of Stetson International Environmental Moot Court Competition and Leiden Sarin International Air Law Moot Court Competition.

The RGNUL has been steadfastly moving towards creating a platform for contemporary research and deliberations on Law and related areas. The entire faculty, staff and the administration of the University have whole heartedly and with great diligence contributed to providing the congenial environment for learning. I wish the RGNUL fraternity all the very best and welcome the new batch of students.

Best Wishes!

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S

Message

The central idea behind the National Law Universities movement is to ensure a pragmatic dimension to legal education which will frame a holistic approach covering the contemporary requirements of the legal profession. At RGNUL we are focused and committed to this idea, which propels us to not only to up date our course curriculum but also to make it challenging enough for the next generation. RGNUL provides teaching platforms beyond class room. We appreciate the fact that professional skills of students can be honed only through extensive participation in competitions, research related activities and volunteering. A student at RGNUL undertakes twelve weeks. The Internship Programme introduces the RGNUL student to various facets of law commencing from the first semester itself.

RGNUL students have started making their presence felt in the International Moot Competitions as well. Our students qualified for Stetson International Environmental Moot Court Competition and Leiden Sarin International Air Law Moot Court Competition in the last academic session. We also provide enough opportunities in the shape of Conferences / Seminars / Workshops and Research Journals for students to hone their research skills. National Assessment and Accreditation Council of India (NAAC) awarded our university Grade 'A' based on various academic, administrative and infrastructural parameters. Our smart class rooms, ultramodern moot court hall, advanced computers labs and fully computerized RFID equipped library speak of our commitment in providing best facilities and amenities to the student community.

I welcome all the new students to the RGNUL family and pray for your growth and development at this University.

(Paramjit S. Jaswal)
Vice-Chancellor

REGISTRAR'S

Message

Within a decade RGNUL has made all-round progress. By now RGNUL students have made their mark in all facets of legal profession. They are excelling in higher studies both in national and international arena, being awarded prestigious scholarships, joined legal profession as practicing lawyers at all levels, beside joining state judicial services in the country. This all has been achieved with concerted efforts of our dynamic faculty and able leadership of our worthy Vice-Chancellor Professor (Dr.) Paramjit S. Jaswal.

This institution holds a promise to the forthcoming students. RGNUL provides a world class infrastructure in the form of smart class rooms, practical training, moot court participation, internship opportunities, sports facilities, gymnasium, and other co-curricular activities, whereby they can hone their professional skills alongwith acquisition of competent knowledge of law. In its Graduate and Post-Graduate Courses the university lays emphasis on imparting quality legal education in the specialized areas.

The university also promotes research and analytical potential through its Centres of Advanced Study. The new entrants get all opportunities to grow and develop professional legal acumen.

I congratulate the new entrants upon being successful in CLAT and joining this institution. I wish them all the best for the future!

Best Wishes !

IT FACILITIES

Information technologies have affected every aspect of human activity and have a potential role to play in the field of education. With the help of Information Technology the need of new technologies in teaching learning process grows stronger and faster. Information technologies help in promoting opportunities of knowledge sharing throughout the world. These ensure that the teachers and students have up-to-date information and knowledge. Students are able to work in collaborative and interactive learning environments effectively communicating, sharing information and exchanging ideas and experiences with all, in knowledge construction and dissemination process.

Keeping in view the importance of Information technologies, the University has established three fully air conditioned computer Labs with 136 computers having latest configuration and high speed internet facility at RGNUL New Campus, Sidhuwal, Patiala. First Lab is equipped with 50 computers of HP, in the Second Lab there are around 70 Hi-tech Apple computers and in third Lab the university have around 16 of Dell All in One computers.

These Labs are also equipped with latest windows and Microsoft office (Hp/Dell) and all necessary academic software's. To provide the best use of IT in the field of education the University has installed Interactive boards, Projectors and Multimedia podium in each class rooms. The software supplied with the interactive whiteboard allow the teacher to keep notes and annotations as an electronic file for later distribution either on paper or through a number of electronic formats. The University IT department is available to provide guidance to the students, faculty staff and Non-teaching staff in attaining expertise in operating computers. The academic curriculum of the University is largely oriented towards the use of latest technology.

The University is having 1Gbps connectivity for its campus through BSNL under NMEICT project. With the implementation of this mission the RGNUL is become a part of National Knowledge Network (NKN) through BSNL. This project provides E-connectivity for the students and the teachers; it helps the students in the field of Law, in communicating with other Universities and also for their placement. To provide secure Internet connection the University is having Secured Firewall (Unified threat Management System) at its premises. It is an appliance that delivers real-time network protection against evolving Internet threats through unique user based policies. These hardware firewalls safeguard the network from the outside threats and intrusions. Use of IT facilities requires prior registration and the granting of a user code or an individual password. The RGNUL campus is a fully Wi-Fi campus with access to Internet, ERP and e-mail for 24x7 hours.

Keeping in view the essential importance of computer networking, the University initiated its efforts by surfacing a plan for developing a Campus Wide Computer Network with a mandate to link together all the computing resources located in different departments, Research Centres and other buildings of the University. The IT department with an emphasis to make Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab a fully IT enabled University. Campus Networking (LAN/WiFi), University website, Internet, Intranet and IT facilities like Class Room Interactive Board, Multimedia Podium, Projectors are maintained by the IT department of the University. The Single mode/multi-mode fiber-optic cabling has been laid over a distance of about 5 km extending to various departments of the University. All the buildings of the University are now interconnected with optical fiber 10G backbone. The Server Room of the University is equipped with Blade Server, Central Core Switches, Security software's and security Firewall. To facilitate the students and staff, the University has also installed a complete ERP solution that simplifies workflow. LSAcademia ERP software manages the complete academic cycle of the students, thereby streamlining their interaction with the faculty and the management. The modular design of LSAcademia provides comprehensive functional coverage in almost all areas of an academic institute.

THE MOOT COURT HALL

Mooting is one of the prime academic exercises promoted in RGNUL. It is the policy of the University to encourage its students to participate in national and international moot court competitions. The University moot policy is backed by the keen interest of the faculty members. The well-equipped library, computer lab with internet, provide an atmosphere conducive to young minds to focus on the legal debates at various moots. The University's moot court hall has a capacity of 250 persons. It is specifically designed to provide real court room experience to the participants.

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES IN CRIMINAL LAW (CASCL)

RGNUL has established a Centre for Advanced Studies in Criminal Law (CASCL) to undertake advanced study and research in the emerging areas of criminal law; professional training including sensitisation on application and enforcement of criminal law in the fair and coherent manner; research projects independently or in collaboration with professional organisations at the national and international level; to bring about publications and produce study material on various aspects of criminal law and to organise seminars, workshops and conferences on contemporary and significant issues of criminal law. The Centre aims to contribute in the improvement of administration of criminal justice system as a whole at regional, national and international levels. The major areas of thrust are to bring about reforms in the substantive and procedural criminal law in view of the modern crime scenario; development of sound criminal justice policy and practice; to generate respect for human rights and rule of law in the administration of criminal justice; training and technical assistance to agencies concerned with administration of criminal justice; renewal of sentencing policies and correctional systems; revamping justice to the victims of crime, and legal aid and speedy disposal of the criminal cases. The Centre has organized various activities like seminars / conferences and moots and published proceedings / books.

CENTRE FOR CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS AND ADVOCACY (CCPLA)

Another Centre of excellence, namely Centre for Consumer Protection Laws and Advocacy (CCPLA) has been established on the campus. The aim of the centre is to conduct advanced research in various aspects related to the Consumer Protection Law; to provide consultancy in consumer protection litigation by involving students, faculty members and practicing lawyers; to excel in undertaking empirical research works in the fields of consumer protection; to establish a platform for the purpose of Training the Trainers in order to magnify the potential of the advocates dealing in Consumer Protection Law; to equip them thoroughly with the laws and the analytical ability to strengthen the functional paradigm of NGOs working and contributing in the area; to provide legal aid to the under-privileged sections of the Indian society in order to promote awareness in the context; and to render guidance and encouraging 'Public Interest Litigation'. The Centre plans to start a Post-Graduate Diploma in Consumer Protection Law and Advocacy in order to encourage consumer awareness in the society and to give impetus to welfare oriented legislations.

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES IN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN LAW (CASH)

RGNUL has established a Specialized Centre on International Humanitarian Law (CASH) with the object of promoting teaching and research in the area of IHL. It is primarily focusing on disseminating information and awareness about the subject, preparing a data base, carrying out advanced research, organizing seminars, conferences etc. For that the scholars, teachers, students and advocates working in the field of International Humanitarian Law, International Relations, Human Rights, Political and Social Work are always selected to participate. CASH centre is regularly organizing the Training of Trainer Programme, Workshops, Sensitization Programme and an annual event of Essay Writing Competition and the winner of this competition gets the most precious award of Henry Dunant every year. Centre has collaboration with the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) for organizing various events. CASH centre has organized in the past a training of trainer programme in collaboration with ICC India: The Campaign on International Criminal Court on the topic of International Criminal Law. CASH is also organizing in August 2016 a national level moot court competition. It shall also organize a workshop on International Humanitarian law in collaboration with ICRC, New Delhi.

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED STUDIES IN HUMAN RIGHTS (CASIHR)

RGNUL has established a Centre for Advanced Studies in Human Rights (CASIHR) to undertake and promote advanced study and research in the emerging trends relating to this area. With human rights and the principle of respect for human dignity at its core and taking many cross-cutting issues into consideration, the CASIHR aims at promoting, supporting and carrying out advanced studies and interdisciplinary research on numerous issues ranging from good governance to globalization processes, with specific focus on: (i) human rights at regional, national and international perspectives; (ii) human rights in peace and war; (iii) human rights and human security; (iii) trade and sustainable development, (iv) nuclear weapons and use of force by States; (v) environmental degradation; (vi) democracy and rule of law; and (vii) human rights and good governance. In full recognition of the complex national and international issues involved, the CASIHR intends to approach any study and research from a multi-level and multi-factor perspective. Besides such studies and independent applied research, it ambitiously aims at (i) creating working documents serving as advices to policy makers on human rights governance and public policy issues and (ii) to regularly organize conferences, seminars and debates on the relevant topics. The ultimate objective of the CASIHR is to emerge as a think tank for national and international issues relevant to promotion and protection of human rights and human dignity.

SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURAL LAW AND ECONOMICS (SALE)

School of Agricultural Law and Economics (SALE) is a Centre of excellence established with an object to provide a platform for multidimensional analysis of the agricultural sector in connotation to legal, social, political and cultural paradigms. In other terms, it is centre forwarding inter-disciplinary approach to the study of economics and law. It undertakes research projects, curriculum coverage on important themes like standardization of agricultural products; farming patterns; Issues related to agricultural insurance especially the crops and the workers, problems related to marketing of agricultural produce; credit needs; farm management and tenancy issues; environmental concerns; policy framework and agricultural planning issues related to international trade in agriculture especially under the regime of the WTO. Introduction to SALE is, "balancing development and sustainability" The emphasis on economic development had to be justified with industrial expansion and growth; which further deprived agriculture of an optimum concern and impetus. All these features resulted into Agricultural Deterioration; further creating a need to balance development with sustainability goals. Research in agriculture and development of agricultural law are a probable consequence of these factors. Agriculture, when ignored in policy making and law formation, has posed numerous challenges for the administration; as the Indian society and its livelihood depends upon the agrarian pattern to a large extent. The School of Agricultural Law would encompass the study of the law which focuses on the special rules and exceptions made for agriculture. It basically aims at focusing how agricultural laws can be used to serve the diverse and competent interests of the agrarian society. An understanding of agricultural laws would require an understanding of the agricultural financial institutions and the people associated therein such as the farmers, food processors, the landlords, the tillers, the suppliers of agricultural inputs and equipments, agricultural workers, etc.; which SALE will focus on.

RGNUL aims at securing excellence in the field of professional legal education and research. It imbibes the qualities of learning and research in the students; a commitment to ethics; diversity; public interest; and social justice. The University takes a pro-active position on all matters relating to professional and appropriate Code of Conduct on the part of the entire University students community, faculty and non-teaching staff. There is a general expectation that all members of the RGNUL family will observe decorum in all their relations with each other. The University also requires strict observance of the statutory provisions in this regard.

In furtherance of its commitment to an environment of honesty, fairness and mutual respect, RGNUL takes serious cognizance of the acts of academic / professional misconduct that include cheating on academic exercises, plagiarism, misrepresentation and interference of any kind in the access of fellow students to University services, among others.

There is no scope for the students to indulge in any type of political activities inside or outside the campus. Evidence of any political activity inside the campus is considered as an act of gross indiscipline and shall be very strictly dealt with. RGNUL is a residential University. Every student shall remain on the campus during the study hours and he / she shall not leave the campus without prior permission. The minimum commended core values of the University include the following:

- (1) Truthfulness;
- (2) Non-Violence;
- (3) Compassion;
- (4) Equal human dignity and equal status of all people;
- (5) Freedom for all, including their freedom of thought, belief and their freedom to dissent;
- (6) Pluralism and pluri-versalism;
- (7) Professionalism; and
- (8) Safeguarding the interests of the community and avoiding harm to the community.

1. A student is not allowed to stay in hostels during the class hours.
2. A student is not allowed to remain absent from the hostels overnight without the written permission from the warden.
3. A student is not allowed to take any guest to his/her hostel room.
4. Hostel residents are not allowed to keep motor vehicles at the hostels.
6. Smoking, consumption of alcohol or other intoxicants are strictly prohibited. Contravention of the rule shall invite strict disciplinary action.
7. The students are not allowed to keep or use any electrical appliances in the hostel rooms.
8. The students shall be responsible for maintenance of cleanliness in and around their hostel rooms. Spoiling / defacing of hostel property / building shall be penalized and may also lead to community fine.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

- 1 Every student shall be required to attend minimum 85% lectures in each subject during the semester.

ABSOLUTE NO TO RAGGING

"Ragging" means causing, inducing, compelling or forcing a student, whether by way of a practical joke or otherwise, to do any act which detracts from human dignity or violates his / her person or exposes him / her to ridicule, or compels him / her to forbear from doing any lawful act, by intimidating, wrongfully restraining, wrongfully confining or injuring him / her or by using criminal force to him / her, or by holding out to him / her any threat of such intimidation, wrongful restraint, wrongful confinement, injury or the use of criminal force.

Ragging being an evil practice, is inhuman, illegal and punishable. It violates the discipline of an educational institution and adversely affects the standards of higher education. Ragging in educational institutions is banned by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. The Hon'ble Court has issued mandatory orders to curb the menace of ragging in educational institutions. If an applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or it is noticed later that he / she has indulged in ragging, his / her admission may be refused or he / she shall be expelled from the educational institution. The punishment may also be in other forms, such as suspension from the classes for a limited period, or fine with a public apology, debarring from representation in events, withholding results, suspension or expulsion from hostel or mess, and the like. If the Head of the Institution is not satisfied with these arrangements for action, a First Information Report (FIR) can be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police. The discretionary power vests solely with the University Authorities.

We at RGNUL are committed to removing ragging in all forms. In compliance with the guidelines laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court of the country, RGNUL has constituted an Anti-Ragging Committee. Anti-Ragging Committee comprises four faculty members nominated by the Vice-Chancellor.

The Anti-Ragging Committee of the University shall assist to observe the recommendations / directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court without exception, and if it is observed that there is any deviation, the Committee shall inform the University authorities.

"Let's together curb this menace".

ABSOLUTE NO TO RAGGING!

According to the directions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in University of Kerala v. Council of Principals of Colleges in Kerala, (in SLP no. 24295 of 2006 dated 16.05.2007) ragging within or outside any educational institution is strictly prohibited.

- 'Ragging' means any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness a fresher or any other student, or indulging in rowdy or indiscipline activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any fresher or any other student.
- The University Grants Commission (UGC), New Delhi has also taken a stern view of the problem of ragging and has also issued the necessary guidelines to curb the menace of ragging.

According to the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the following recommendations need immediate implementation:

- The punishment to be meted out has to be exemplary and justifiably harsh to act as a deterrent against recurrence of such incidents;
- Every single incident of ragging where the victim or his parent/guardian or the Head of institution is not satisfied with the institutional arrangement for action, a First Information Report (FIR) must be filed without exception by the institutional authorities with the local police authorities;
- Courts should make an effort to ensure that cases involving ragging are taken upon priority basis to send the correct message that ragging is not only to be discouraged but is also to be dealt with sternness;
- The court has directed the exploration of possibility of introducing in the educational curriculum, a subject relating to ragging;
- In the prospectus to be issued for admission by educational institutions, it shall be clearly stipulated that in case the applicant for admission is found to have indulged in ragging in the past or if it is noticed later that he has indulged in ragging, admission may be refused or he shall be expelled from the educational institution;
- The Central Government and the State Governments shall launch a programme giving wide publicity to the menace of ragging and the consequences which follow in case any student is detected to have been involved in ragging;
- Role of the concerned institution shall also be open to scrutiny for the purpose of finding out whether they have taken effective steps for preventing ragging and in case of their failure, action can be taken against them, too;
- Anti-Ragging Committees and squads shall forthwith be formed by the institutions to see that the Committees' recommendations are observed without exception and if it is noticed that there is any deviation, the same shall forthwith be brought to the notice of this Court; and
- The Committee constituted pursuant to the order of this Court shall continue to monitor the functioning of the Anti-Ragging Committees and the squads to be formed. They shall also monitor the implementation of the recommendations to which reference has been made above.

Acts Amounting to Ragging Could be:

- Teasing, Embarrassing and Humiliating;
- Assaulting or Using Criminal Force or Criminal Intimidation;
- Wrongfully Restraining or Confining or Causing Hurt;
- Causing Grievous Hurt, Kidnapping or Rape or Committing Unnatural Offence; and
- Causing Death or Abetting Suicide.

WHERE THE MIND IS WITHOUT FEAR

Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high

Where knowledge is free

Where the world has not been broken up into fragments

By narrow domestic walls

Where words come out from the depth of truth

Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection

Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way

Into the dreary desert sand of dead habit

Where the mind is led forward by thee

Into ever-widening thought and action

Into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake
